Only a Few Spaces Left!

Summer camp spots going like hotcakes! This year we created 11 weeks (3 more than usual) of camp, hoping to give everyone a chance to come to the farm. Due to COVID, however, we are limiting each week to 6 campers. We answered your requests from last year and extended the day by 1 hour. Now we have enough time to bring back activities like tie-dye, games, and water day!!

Sad News

Lori Zecchino Passes It is with heavy hearts and lots of happy memories that we share the passing of Horses for Healing rider, Lori Zecchino. Her kindness, determination, and joy will be greatly missed by all those who knew her. This past Monday, when the H4H 2.0 ladies came for their weekly riding lesson they took a moment to celebrate her life with a toast.

Putting the Treatment First...Literally

Look who wrote the newest AHA blog post! That's right, Nicole Halliwell DSc. OTR/L, who helped us out when Gina Taylor, OT was on maternity leave. Take a moment to read this short article about her journey to become Level 1 & 2 certified by the American Hippotherapy Association and how interacting with the volunteers and horses as partners helps her deliver the best possible treatment during her occupational therapy sessions.

VOLUNTEER ARENA

Help Us Sort Shoes!

It's not glamorous but we NEED you.

Thanks to so many wonderful people who donated shoes by the bag load, we now have a ton of shoes that need to be sorted, banded, and bagged up. Don't worry you won't freeze! We will set you up to sort for 1-2 hours in our heated lobby. Masks must be worn and disposable gloves will be given.

Reach out to the Volunteer Coordinator, Rebecca@manestreamnj.org to set up a date and time.
